DIRECTOR'S OVERVIEW

Healthcare-Associated Infections – Building and Sustaining State Programs to Prevent Healthcare-Associated Infections – ARRA Stimulus Funds

59-06-08-01

Program Narrative: Healthcare-associated infections (HAIs) are infections that patients acquire while receiving treatment for medical or surgical conditions. HAIs occur in all settings of care, including acute care within hospitals and same day surgical centers, ambulatory outpatient care in healthcare clinics, and in long-term care facilities, such as nursing homes and rehabilitation facilities. Recent research efforts supported by the CDC and the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) have shown that implementation of CDC HAI prevention recommendations can reduce HAIs by 70% and virtually eliminate some types of infections. Broad implementation of these guidelines can result in dramatic reductions in HAIs, which will not only save lives and reduce suffering, but will result in healthcare cost savings, especially in the Medicare and Medicaid programs.

The purpose of this stimulus funding is to build and sustain state programs to prevent healthcare-associated infections. State Public Health Departments have traditionally had limited funding, or workforce, directly targeted to HAI issues. Through this project, CDC will fund and provide technical assistance to the state Public Health agencies to make critical short-term investments that will provide for a sustainable state infrastructure on HAI prevention and progress toward preventing HAIs.

The Delaware Division of Public Health will apply three activity areas including A: Coordination and Reporting of State HAI Prevention Efforts; B: Detection and Reporting of Healthcare Associated Infection Data (HAI Surveillance); and C: Establishing a Prevention Collaborative. The average award for all three activities is $1,200,000. The award date is August 30, 2009. The project period will run through December 31, 2011.

DPH project activities include: 1) Filling the state-funded epi position and designating that person the HAI coordinator (this will require approval from OMB for temporary funding of a state position with federal funds); 2) Providing support to the existing HAI Advisory committee; 3) Recommending areas for expanded data collection to the committee; 4) Developing a plan for supporting hospitals as they collect more data; 5) Developing a training plan for DPH and facility staff to enhance capacity for data analysis; and 6) Implementing a plan to reduce rates of HAI.

We are requesting that a 1.0 FTE state funded position BP#102143, Epidemiologist II, be paid from the federal stimulus funds during the duration of this grant, which ends 12/31/2011.

Budget Comparison: The total amount of the application will be $1,200,000.

Relationship to State Budget: There is no state match requirement for this grant.
